

Do not interfere with the Wisconsin no-call list. It should be the model for the nation. If we want to hear from a salesman we will call them. They have many public advertisement channels to inform the willing public of their products and services. The phone is a private channel and should stay one.